Closing with a smile...

Puns by Karthik Narayanan, London

After lot of karma and upāsana yoga, Devadatta's mind had completely lost its selfishness and was always thinking of other humans, the society, loka sangraha, seva etc. I overheard Devadatta (DD) on a phone call with British Airways (BA) recently.

DD: Hello. I'm traveling to India via BA0199 and I want to know if the plane has a capacity of 240 or 250 passengers.

BA: Sorry sir I can't tell you that.

DD: But I need to know - I looked up the internet and it says a 747A can hold 240 and 747B has a capacity of 250.

BA: Sir I need to report you to the police. You're sounding very fishy.

DD: But I need to know to fill this form.

BA: Which form?

DD: It's called Air Suvidha from Govt of India

BA: Why does Govt of India want to know how if a 747 has a capacity of 240 or 250?

DD: Well there's a question on the form which says "How many passengers are flying with you?"

Warning: Non-contextual understanding of loka-sangraha can be injurious to your safety!
