YOUr Guru ... because of YOU

The guru holds the mirror of the Śāstra as the student wonders – Who am I?

The guru teaches because the student learns.

The guru commits to the student's growth because the student gro(ans).

The guru reveals the truth because the student seeks.

The guru answers questions because the student asks.

The guru blesses because the student receives.

The guru loves because the student is lovable.

The guru shines the light because the student is light (pun intended).

The guru and the student laugh.

The guru disappears, Another guru appears and the tradition continues.

For those who consider us your gurus, we are so, because of YOU. Thank you.

With love and prayers in this month of Guru Pūrṇimā,
