Svadharmā – Discovering and Living our Life Purpose with the Hindu University of America

Life is short. We want our lives to matter.
How do we go about it?

To live a complete and well-rounded life, our ancients guided us to anchor ourselves on Sanatana Dharma. Depending on our age and stage of life we can discover and live our svadharmā, a life of purpose and connection.

As we welcome the New Year 2024 it is good to discover and live one's life purpose. It is such a popular course that Swamini Brahmajnananda is offering it for the third time. By the end of the course, you would have discovered and started to live your life purpose.
